

A WORLD OF COLOUR

This is a side panel from a Sicilian wine cart or carretti. The cart was brought to Canada in 1962 by an immigrant whose family were wagon makers. Traditionally, these carts were used to transport food and wine and the scenes painted on the sides illustrated the history of a particular village. The images on this cart depict the legends and historical events of Sicily.

©CMC CD 95-340 / 88-286