

A WORLD OF COLOUR

This beautiful Ukrainian Easter egg is called a pysanka. Traditionally, each family or village within the Ukraine had its own special way of decorating eggs. Eggs were often crafted as ornaments to be given as gifts or kept as decorations. This egg was donated to the Canadian Museum of Civilization in 1968 by a woman of Ukrainian descent.

©CMC 95-359 / 68-322